ABOUT RUGBY SCHOOL JAPAN

Rugby School Japan is a premier British boarding and day school in Greater Tokyo that blends a 450-year educational legacy with modern innovation. Families choose RSJ for its holistic “Whole Person Whole Point” ethos, which balances rigorous academics (IGCSEs, A Levels, strong university pathways) with character development, resilience, and wellbeing.

RSJ graduates know who they are, understand their unique strengths, and are ready to forge their own path in the world. We uniquely combine the prestige of British heritage, the flexibility of Tokyo-based boarding, and a nurturing community that feels like home - developing confident, empathetic global citizens ready for world-leading universities and life beyond.

KEY FACTS

ETHOS

The Whole Person The Whole Point

"The Whole Person The Whole Point" means we educate the whole person (academically, physically, creatively, and personally) - helping pupils understand their unique strengths so they can forge their own path.

CURRICULUM

Proudly British

We proudly follow the British curriculum, culminating in pupils studying for the globally-renowned and respected IGCSE and A-Level qualifications which are accepted by leading universities, worldwide.

BOARDING

Day, Weekly, Full Boarding

Pupils can choose to join RSJ as day students, weekly boarders, or full boarders. This flexible offerings makes us popular with families based in Tokyo, wider Japan, and overseas (Asia and beyond).

LOCATION

30 MINUTES FROM CENTRAL TOKYO

KASHIWANOHA CAMPUS
CHIBA, JAPAN

Expansive campus with state-of-the-art classrooms, sports facilities, and creative spaces.

RSJ LEADERSHIP & STAFF

Founding Principal - Tony Darby

RSJ Principal, Tony Darby, has extensive experience in British boarding schools - having held senior leadership positions at Rugby School UK and St Edwards School in Oxford.

Mr Darby began his career as an accountant - later embarking on an educational career, teaching Economics and Business.

RSJ Teaching Staff

RSJ primarily recruits teachers and boarding staff from the UK. Our academic and pastoral teams bring a wealth of experience of both the British curriculum, international education, and pastoral care for boarders. This creates a unique and authentic British learning environment, located just 30 minutes from central Tokyo
